Warm up your faith

Any time is a good time for pizza, especially when it’s cold outside and you can have it delivered piping hot. But what do you do with the leftovers? You put them in the fridge for the next day. You pop a slice in the microwave and voila: you get a soggy, rubbery piece of pie that just doesn’t deliver.

Instead, Yahoo cooking suggests, “Whip out your cast iron skillet or stove pan. Heat it on a burner set for medium for 5 minutes until the cheese re-melts and the bottom of the crust is nice and crispy. They claim it even tastes better than it did originally.

The New Year is a time to reheat our faith. This does not mean just pop into church for a week or two, but rededicate yourself to get back into daily Bible study, prayer, and living for Him each day. You will find that your faith will be warmed up, more refreshing, and more influential than perhaps it was originally. Each day we live, we’re growing closer to facing our God in judgment. It’s time to warm up our faith.

Christian Quotes About Prayer.Â Pray without ceasing. (1 Thessalonians 5:17 KJV)
LET US PRAY: Lord, thanks for the gift of prayer. Thank You that I have an ever-listening ear to my problems. Thank You that You do not only listen to my problems but You solve them too. Lord, thank You that I can always come to You in prayer asking for the things I want that I may receive it.
