The House that Groaned. Average rating: 2 out of 5 stars, based on 1 review. $21.11. Swoon! Unfortunately, 'The House That Groaned' has none of this magic. The artwork is too clunky for me to enjoy. It's all done in a series of monochrome blue-greens where the darks and lights fight each other rather than coalesce. It's like a book full of drawings of people by someone who hates to draw people. Most of the frames suffer from poor composition which makes them confusing and hard to 'read'. This is a form of storytelling that needs a cinematographer's editing eye to get to the kernel of every frame. The house that groaned. Item Preview. Share or Embed This Item. EMBED. The house that groaned. This unnerving graphic novel about six eccentric tenants, unravels inside a three-storey house in Rottin Road. The cover image shows us first the house's brick-built exterior, its windows cut out to invite us to peer like nosy neighbours through them into their ye
