Standard	Description	Merriam-Webster Offering
Reading Process/Print Concepts PO 5	Distinguish between printed letters and words.	Merriam-Webster's Alphabet Book introduces each letter on its own page and provides examples of the letter used in words that are part of a rhyme.
Reading Process/Phonemic Awareness PO 1	Distinguish spoken rhyming words from non-rhyming words.	Students can hear the differences between rhyming and non-rhyming words when the alphabet rhymes in Merriam-Webster's Alphabet Book are read aloud.
Reading Process/Phonemic Awareness PO 2	Orally produce rhyming words in response to spoken words.	The rhymes in Merriam-Webster's Alphabet Book offer opportunities for student participation and response.
Reading Process/Phonemic Awareness PO 3	Orally produce groups of words that begin with the same initial sound.	The read-aloud alphabet rhymes in Merriam-Webster's Alphabet Book highlight groups of words that begin with the same initial sounds, inviting students' oral response.
Reading Process/Phonics PO 1	Identify letters of the alphabet (upper and lower case).	Both uppercase and lowercase letters are big, bold, and colorful in Merriam-Webster's Alphabet Book .
Reading Process/Phonics PO 2	Recognize that a new word is created when a specific letter is changed, added, or removed.	For every letter, Merriam-Webster's Alphabet Book introduces students to words that begin with the same letter and end differently, words that begin with a different letter and end the same, and other patterns of word-formation.
Reading Process/Phonics PO 3	Say letter sounds represented by the single-lettered consonants and vowels.	The entertaining poems and colorful illustrations in Merriam-Webster's Alphabet Book describe and demonstrate the sound-letter correspondences of each letter of the alphabet.
Reading Process/Vocabulary PO 3	Describe familiar objects and events in both general and specific language.	To aid in developing this skill Merriam-Webster's Primary Dictionary offers a rich set of images depicting objects, actions, events, and associated words.
Comprehending Literary Text/Elements of Literature PO 1	Participate (e.g., react, speculate, join in, read along) when predictably patterned selections of fiction and poetry are read aloud.	Students can predict the rhyming words when the verses in Merriam-Webster's Alphabet Book are read aloud to them.
Comprehending Informational Text/Expository Text PO 1	Identify the purpose for reading expository text.	Merriam-Webster's Primary Dictionary provides an early exposure to expository text written in an engaging format that makes facts accessible and memorable for young readers. Detailed illustrations help with meanings of words and concepts.
Comprehending Informational Text/Expository Text PO 2	Restate facts from listening to expository text.
