ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Giles Andreae (born 16 March 1966) is a British artist, poet and greeting card writer, creator of the "Purple Ronnie" and "Edward Monkton" series. As a child Andreae went to Eton College where he was best friends with David Cameron. He then went on to Oxford University (Worcester College, 1985 – 88). Andreae completed his degree under difficult circumstances as he developed Hodgkin's lymphoma, a cancer of the lymph glands, and began an intensive course of chemotherapy and radiotherapy the day before his final exams began. In 2006 Andreae worked alongside Blunderbus Theatre Company (Nottinghamshire) to adapt his story Giraffes Can't Dance to bring it to stage. The company toured this story across the UK.

THE READ ALOUD

BEFORE READING

Use these questions before reading the story to help students activate background knowledge and make predictions:

- This book was written by the same author who wrote our book last week? Do you remember what it was?
- I wonder what this book is about? What do you think a rumble is?
- Do you think this is a fiction or nonfiction book? Thumbs up for fiction, thumbs down for nonfiction, sideways for not sure. Why do you think so?

RUMBLE IN THE JUNGLE

TOPICS & THEMES:

- Rhyming
- Animal traits
- Descriptive words

Tips for every book!

POWER PHRASES:

I WONDER...

I NOTICE...

TELL ME MORE...

DIGGING DEEPER:

"Tell me more, why do you think that?"

"How do you know that?"

"Why do you think they feel like that?"

"Interesting, did you notice anything else?"

DURING THE STORY

Use these questions while reading the story to help students interpret the action and content.

Emergent Literacy (Comprehension - connections to world/self – print referencing - open ended questions - phonological awareness)

- P.2 look at the illustration. Can you predict what animals we might find in the jungle?
- P. 10. I wonder why zebras have stripes? What do you think? How could we find the answer?
- All right! I have a math problem for you. Look at the birds in the tree? How many yellow? How many red? Show me with your fingers how many altogether?
- P. 12. Can you figure out what gangly means from looking at the picture? (Discuss and then give the definition - long and skinny).
- P. 19. What is ferocious?
- P.21. Ravenous – can you all say that word with me? Does anyone know what it means? See if you can remember that!
- P. 24 Listen as I read the page again. What rhyming words do you hear?

AFTER READING

Use these questions while after reading the story to help students understand what they just read.

- Why do you think Giles Andreae wrote this book?
- Was this book fiction or nonfiction? What made you think that? Hands up if you changed your mind from before we read the book?
- What characteristics make a book a nonfiction?
- Does this one have any of those characteristics?
- Is the information accurate?

BRINGING THE BOOK TO LIFE!

- P. 4. Show me how you munch something.
- P. 6 what does quiver mean? Show me how you would quiver. How are you feeling if you quiver?
- P. 11 Can you hiss like a snake? I wonder what sound a giraffe makes?
- P.14 Use your hand to show how the crocodile chomps.

COOPERATIVE LEARNING

- P. 16. (After reading text on page)... Turn to your neighbor and talk about what you think ravenous means. Share back to group. Define for students if no one has correct meaning.

SMALL-GROUP IDEAS

1. DISCUSSION ACTIVITY

- Do a picture walk through the book. On each page look for words that describe the animal
- (adjectives) make a list on paper or small white board of these words.
- Go back and look at the list. Have children think of other animals that these adjectives could describe.
- Talk about what traits all these animals have in common. What traits are different.
- Have students find and share their favorite page. If they can, encourage them to read aloud to the group. Have them share why it is their favorite page.
- How is this book like Giraffes can't dance? (Have both books available so students can look at covers, thumb through, etc.) How do they differ?

Suggested Optional Activity:

- Download and print real pictures of the animals in the book. Pass out to students and have them use adjectives from the list you generated to describe them. See if the other students can guess their animal.
- Or: Choose several pages and reread to the students. Have them point out rhyming words. See how many other words they can come up with that also rhyme. Ex. P.3-4. Trees/fleas. Other words. Knees, bees, sneeze, please, frees, etc. if you like. Make a list on paper or white board.

2. WRITING ACTIVITY

- Which animal was your favorite?
- My favorite animal from the book is _____ because _____.
- Illustrate your writing by drawing the animal and you in the jungle!

3. EXTENSION ACTIVITY

- Pretend there is a book title “commotion in the ocean”. Create a book cover showing animal that might be included in that book.
